“Tip Jar Bandit” Charged With Stealing From Beverly Hills Merchants

A 20-year-old woman was charged today with stealing from tip jars at several Beverly Hills businesses, the Los Angeles County District Attorney’s Office announced.

Jessica Mary Shub (dob 12/28/94) of Beverly Hills was charged with five misdemeanor counts of petty theft and one misdemeanor count of attempted petty theft in case 5WA31208.

Shub pleaded not guilty today and is due to return on Feb. 25 to Department 143 of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, Airport Branch.

According to the criminal complaint, Shub stole from five Beverly Hills merchants, including a pizzeria, a coffee shop and an ice cream parlor over the past three months.

If convicted as charged, Shub faces a possible maximum sentence of 33 months in county jail.

The case remains under investigation by the Beverly Hills Police Department.
